LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—At Georgetown the Continental Co. bought 450,000 pounds of tobacco.

—Quite a number of our local horsemen attended the horse sales at Lexington, this week.

—The Government crop report shows the condition of wheat to be 76 5 as compared to 87.3 last April.

—Dogs have killed or crippled over a hundred sheep in Woodford county lately and the farmers are on the war path.

—In Mercer county much hemp remains unbroken and planters are paying $1.25 to $1.50 per hundred to have it broken.

—The best way to tell if the Kentucky peach crop is ruined is to wait. The proof of the pudding is the eating thereof.

—The Maysville Ledger says the col'd snap the first of the week killed tobacco plants there, and planters have resown the beds.

—S. B. Lane has sold and delivered to N. K. Foster, at Winchester, 60,000 lbs. of tobacco at 7, 7½, 8½ and 10 cents.— Mt. Sterling Gazette.

—It is thought that the movement of cattle from Texas to Cuba this season will be much greater than last year's. Men are already busy rounding up 18,000 for shipment from Galveston.

—At Harrodsburg the city council has granted permission to use the city park in which to hold an old-fashioned fair this summer. The fair company will buy twenty-five acres of land adjoining for a permanent site.

—Col. Jack Chinn, of Harrodsburg, lost by death, the valuable suckling bay colt, by Lamplighter, dam Lynnette, by Tournament. The dam of this youngster was sent to Col. Chinn to be bred to Lamplighter and the colt died a few days after it was foaled. His owner could have sold him for $1,000 in utero, as his dam is a half sister to Maurice, Port Royal and other good winners.

—The tobacco market is still on a boom.
For several days a strong fight between the Independent and Continental companies has been going on, and it is said the latter has secured about 70 per cent. of the offerings. There has been a net advance in the last ten days on some grades of Burley, of as much as 10 cents, but the producer gets no benefit of the rise in the market, as most of the crops have been sold.

—W. T. Woodard's annual horse sale began at Lexington Tuesday. Fair crowd in attendance, but bidding was slow.
Business horses road horses and saddle horses made up the offerings. The following sales were made to local parties: McGregor Gold King, ch. h., 5, by Lamartine, dam Stella McGregor; Joseph Redmon, $185.

Little Sport, ch. g., 7, by Haxhall; Dan Morris, $100.

Katherine C., ch. m., 4, by Bowdean, dam Kate; Dan Morris, $145.

Reuben, b. g., 5, by J. C. Simpson, dam Pet; C. R. James, $170.

Bay gelding, 6, by Gambetta—Wilkes, dam Fannie; W. R. Hukill, $220.

Pair bay geldings, 5 and 6, by Barber; Jas Kerns, $295.

Parvin, br. g., 6, by Preston; Jas. Kerns, $340.
